ENDORSED BY HIS COM-MITTEE—HON. ALLIE W.
YOUNG IS RIGHT.

The State Central Committee, of which Hon Allie W. Young of this city is Chairman, after hearing complaints of certain candidates in the city of Louisville, with reference to the unfair treatment they were receiving at the hands of the local Democratic Committee, at the primary called for May 26th, decided and directed said Allie W. Young to see that all candidates were treated fairly in reference to the election officers and gave him full authority to see that the orders of the State Central Committee were carried out. In doing so it became necessary to appoint a new committee in the city of Louisville, for the purpose of carrying out the orders of the supreme rulers of the party in Kentucky, and Mr. Young had the nerve to do his duty. It is deplorable when any local committee disobeys the orders of the regularly constituted authorities of its party. Mr. Young has done no more than duty demanded, for if the old committee would not give to each candidate his rights then another must be appointed. He is an unchangeable Democrat, has always been in the front ranks contending for his nominees; we know him to be true to his convictions and does not want anything but what is right, and demands that all sides be fairly represented and have a fair opportunity to be heard. This is democracy and as long as all sides are treated fairly, we can expect the good old time majorities.

The Courier Journal is certainly mistaken as to the alleged deal in this district, in reference to the election of Mr. Young as Circuit Judge. As, yet, we have not heard that he will have opposition. We prefer and invite it, and if it does come, there is no question or doubt but that he will win by at least 1,000 majority. The country Democrats worry on account of the troubles that are now existing in the cities and hope that they will be settled for the best interest of democracy. The country Democrats are united. They were in favor of a State primary. It was the first time they had a choice in nominating the entire State ticket, and in November we shall expect increased majorities.

Just before the actual work of tabulating the returns was begun, Committeeman Meacham offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the Democratic party of Kentucky, believing that party discipline and party loyalty are absolutely essential to success at the polls, regrets and deprecates the defiance of the party authority shown by one faction of the Democratic party in the city of Louisville. We express our disapproval of the warfare being made upon the Chairman of this committee, Allie W. Young, and declare our confidence in his loyalty to the Democratic party.

We recognize the fact that this committee is not called upon to consider the troubles in the party referred to, but we think but right and just to our Chairman that we should, in this public manner, express our confidence in him and our disapproval of the assaults being made upon his personal integrity and party loyalty by those who are disposed to resist the authority of the State Central Committee of the Democratic party.

We further believe this expression due our Chairman when we consider the fact that he has been singled out for denunciation, although he was carrying out instructions given him by practically the unanimous vote of the said State Central Committee.

The resolution was declared adopted by Jones, who was in the chair, and Chairman Young said: "Gentlemen of this committee, I desire to thank you from the bottom of my heart for this vote of confidence and approval of my actions. I hope that the time will never come when you may have cause to regret it. I have supported every Democratic nominee since I became a voter, and because I refused to be a party to an unfair primary in Louisville, the Courier Journal seeks to destroy me, to question my Democracy and say that I am betraying the Democrats. I want to say in defense of myself that any man who refuses to wear the collar of this paper, or step to think for himself and the good of his party, that organ seeks to destroy, yet no man can charge me with not being a loyal Democrat. I desire further to state that the organ that accuses me of betraying the one which turned Kentucky over to the Republic, is the only time such a thing ever happened in a Presidential race, and defeated William J. Bryan and turned the State over to William McKinley. I never wanted to change the committee in Louisville, except to see that a fair primary is held and an honest deal and a fair count had, and that the Democrats of Louisville, instead of a local committee, shall have the right to select the nominees to govern the affairs of their city. I was directed by the State Central Committee, by almost a unanimous vote, to see that this was done, and I am truly grateful that its instructions had been upheld by this, its sister committee, which will insure to the voters of Louisville and elsewhere a free ballot and an honest count, which insures to the Democracy of Kentucky a victory in November with the old-time majority."

"Again thanking you from the bottom of my heart for the confidence expressed in me, I desire to say that I shall carry out, to the best of my judgment, the orders entrusted to me by the Democratic organization of the State of Kentucky. This is a question whether the regularly constituted authority of the party in the State shall govern or whether the local committee in Louisville shall dominate the State Democracy."

We suggest to our Louisville friends that they hold a primary fair to all sides, free for all, and whatever the result may be to stand by it, and should always be subservient to the regular constituted party authorities. It is possible that they may be placed in the position of bolters, for to ignore party edicts is no more nor less than to disobey the orders of a convention. This is a day of primaries; a day when the people want to be heard and are going to be heard. Mr. Young's actions are above personalities and as an honest man, wanting to see his party succeed, is only carrying out the orders of the highest constituted authorities of the party.

It is true, it may be expensive to the Louisville Democrats to hold another primary, but there are enough loyal Democrats in Louisville in order to settle this trouble, if they would only let it be known, that would gladly assist and contribute to the expense of another, and thus see that all candidates have a fair count and an honest deal.

TO THE VICTORS

BELONG THE SPOILS.

There is a report going the rounds, industriously circulated by the forces of Democratic opposition, that Hon. J. Morgan Chinn, successful candidate for the Democratic nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals and who by agreement with Mr. W. B. O'Connell for the chief deputyship, received his vote, would now throw Mr. O'Connell down in order to pacify Mr. Greene and prevent a contest. We are authorized to say that this statement is not true, that Mr. Chinn will appoint Mr. O'Connell and that all other places have been filled. We have authority for the further statement that Mr. O'Connell's salary will be as agreed on, $2,500 per year.

RIGHT.

The contestants for city offices in Louisville had asked the Chairman of City Democracy to see that the people had their choice, that all candidates be protected by a division of election officers. The committee gave him power and authorized a fair vote, an honest count, and because the Louisville committee would not give to each candidate the proper safeguard, Mr. Young appointed another committee, one that would; not Whalley for Whallen's friends, but friends to each candidate, and demanded a fair election. Did he do right? "I will decline the last trench rather than prove disloyal to my committee," were the words of the State Democratic leader. Shall Louisville rule the party or the party command Louisville? The people may answer.

THINK OF THIS.

In Winchester not a drunken man was seen in the business part of the city. The reason is, all manufacturers of drinks are kept on one block and their subjects are held there with them. Such an arrangement would work well here. Why not try it? A little girl wouldn't buy candy down town here because she was afraid she would get into a bar room rather than into a candy shop. A good woman was on the street in hurry to find a meat shop and in her haste was shamed and humiliated because she had gone into a bar room. So thick as all that in the respectable parts of the city? Yes.

CATCH HIM.

We give account of the burning of the residence occupied by Howard Anderson and family during their absence. The perpetrator of this crime is a dangerous man and a disgrace to our community. He is a public enemy and should be removed from our midst to Frankfort. We trust that diligence will be used by every officer to apprehend the guilty and that every man who is interested in the peace and good name of our county and security of property will encourage the officers and court in enforcing the law. What will property or life in Mt. Sterling be worth if the destroyers of them go free? Enforce the law.

OUR SCHOOL.

If there are any enemies of the Mt. Sterling Public High School that think, we would ask that they

Efforts Appreciated.

Everybody knows it is almost impossible to get shoes, these days, made from leather tanned after the old fashioned way. Yet there are some good shoes. We hunted the world over—we found every day shoes and Sunday shoes, in all styles for men and boys, plain calf, box calf, velour calf, kids, patent kids, patent colts, patent calf, high top, regular top, low cuts, that are still being made out of honest material. We thought it best to handle such goods at a small margin of profit rather than those with larger profit and less quality. We are happy to know our efforts have been appreciated. Our shoe department has more than doubled. We thank you, and shall still keep the efforts on foot. Guthrie Clothing Co.'s is the place for the best and latest in footwear for man or boy

Twice in a Year.
The residence on Winn street occupied by County Clerk Howard Anderson, with all its effects, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning about 4:30 o'clock. This is the second time in a year this residence has been burned. It was evidently the work of an incendiary. A four gallon can of oil had been emptied and towels and bedding were saturated. Mr. Anderson and his wife were at Bethel and no one was at home. The household goods were insured for $700. His loss is about $800 in excess of insurance. The residence belonged to A. T. Wood and was insured for $1,000. He has offered a reward of $50 for arrest and conviction. No arrest has been made.

Buy you a buggy from a dealer, then come around to Conroy's, look at his, and feel bad. 36-1
Persons desiring to go West with view of locating would do well to write to Mr. Charles H. Donnohue, formerly of this county, who has listed lands for sale or rent, and also city property. Write him at Guthrie, Oklahoma. The Advocate has a personal acquaintance with Mr. Donnohue and know him to be reliable and responsible.

Blue Grass Graded School Tournament.

Last week from eight graded school towns 250 children, teachers and examiners came to Mt. Sterling through gates made wide open for them. It was a joyous and profitable time for all. The examinations marked high and pupils, teachers and all were proud of each other and we are glad it was so. Barring some high spirit conduct, without which mortals amount to little, everything was real pleasant. We were glad to have the company and would be pleased to have them every year. The Advocate extends that invitation now. If not heartily invited to some other blue grass town come over to Mt. Sterling and take it; it shall be yours.

The Widow and the Judge.

Several years ago, a train was passing over the North Western Railroad, between Oshkosh and Madison. In two of the seats facing each other, sat three lawyers engaged at cards. Their fourth player had just left the carriage and they needed another to take his place. "Come, Judge, take a hand, they said to a grave magistrate, who sat looking on, but whose face indicated no approval of their play. He shook his head, but after repeated urgings, finally, with a flushed countenance, took a seat with them and the play went on.

A venerable woman, gray and bent with years, sat and watched the Judge from her seat near the end of the railway carriage. After the game had progressed awhile, she arose, and with trembling frame, and almost overcome with emotion, approached the group. Fixing her eyes intently upon the Judge, she said in a tremulous voice: "Do you know me, Judge—?"

"No, mother, I don't remember you," said the Judge, pleasantly. "Where have we met?"

"My name is Smith," she said; "I was with my poor boy three days, off and on, in the court room at Oshkosh, when he was tried for—for robbing somebody, and you are the same man that sent him to prison for ten years, and he died there last June."

All faces were now sober, and the passengers began to gather around and stand up, all over the car, to listen to, and see what was going on. She did not give the Judge time to answer her, but becoming more and more excited, she went on:

"He was a good boy, if you did send him to jail. He helped us clear the farm, and when father was sick and died, he done all the work, and we got along right smart. He was a stiddy boy till he got to card-playin' an' drinkin', and then, somehow, he didn't like to work after that, but used to stay out till mornin', and he'd sleep late, and I couldn't wake him when I knowed he'd bin out so late the night afore. And then the farm kinder run down, and then we lost the team; one of them got killed when he'd bin to town one awful cold night. He stayed late, and I suppose they got cold standin' out, and got skeered and broke loose, and run almost home, but ran again a fence, and a stake run into one of 'em; and when we found it next mornin' it was dead, and the other was standin' under the shed. And so after a while, he coaxed me to let him sell the farm and buy a house and lot in the village, and he'd work at carpenter work. And so I did, as we couldn't do nothin' on the farm. But he grew worse than ever, and after a while he couldn't get any work, and wouldn't do anything but gamble and drink all the time. I used to do everything I could to get him to quit and be a good, industrious boy again, but he used to get mad after awhile, and once he struck me, and then in the morning I found he had taken what little money there was left on the farm and had run off. After that I got along as well as I could, cleanin' house for folks and washin', but I didn't hear nothin' of him for four or five years; but when he got arrested and was to be up to Oshkosh for trial, he writ to me."

By this time there was not a dry eye in the car, and the cards had disappeared. The lady herself was weeping silently and speaking in sobs. But recovering herself, she went on:

"But what could I do? I sold the house and lot to get money to hire a lawyer, and I believe he is here somewhere," looking around. "Oh, yes, there he is, Mr. —," pointing to the lawyer who had not taken a part in the play. "And this is the man, I am sure, who argued agin him," pointing to Mr. —, the district attorney. "And you, Judge —, sent him to prison for ten years; 'epose it was right, for the poor boy told me that he really did rob the bank, but he must have been drunk, for they had all been playin' kards most all the night and drinkin'. But, oh, dear! it seems to me kinder as though if he hadn't got to playin' kards he might have been alive yet. But when I used totell him it was wrong and bad to play, he would say, 'Why, mother, everybody plays now. I never bet only for the candy, or the cigars, or something like that.' And when we heard that the young folks played kards down to Mr. Culver's donation party, and that Squire Ring was goin' to get a billiard table for the young folks to play on at home, I couldn't do nothin' with him. We used to think it was awful to do that way, when I was young, but it just seems to me as if everybody now-a-days was goin' wrong into something or other. But maybe it isn't right for me to talk to you, Judge, in this way, but it just seems to me as if the very sight of them kards would kill me, Judge. I thought if you knew how I felt, you would not play on so; and then, to think, right here before all these folks! Maybe, Judge, you don't know how young folks, especially boys, look up to such as you; and then I can't help thinkin' that, maybe, if them that ought to know better than to do so, and them that are higher learn'd and 'all that, wouldn't set sich examples, my poor Tom would be alive and caring for his mother; but now there isn't any of my family left but me and my poor gran'child, my darter's little girl, and we are going to stop with my brother in Illinois."

Tongue of man or angel never preached a more eloquent sermon than that gray, withered old lady, trembling with old age, excitement, and fear that she was doing wrong. I can't recall half she said as she, a poor, lone beggared widow, stood before those noble looking men and pleaded the cause of the rising generation.

The look they bore as she poured forth her sorrowful tale was indescribable. To say that they looked like criminals at the bar would be a faint description. I can imagine how they felt. The old lady tottered to her seat, and taking her little grandchild in her lap, hid her face on her neck. The little one stroked her gray hair and said: "Don't cry, granmam; don't cry, granmam. Eyes unused to weeping were red for many a mile on that journey. And I can hardly believe that one who witnessed that scene ever touched a card again. It is but just to say, that when the passengers came to themselves they generously responded to the Judge, who, hat in hand, silently passed through her little audience.

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

At Bowling Green—City's Ownership of Water Works, Street Lights, Etc.

Some Other News.

On Monday morning at 5:50, May 25, the writer started to Bowling Green to attend the annual missionary convention of the Christian churches in the South Kentucky district. He reached that city at 6 o'clock p. m. A few facts concerning it may be interesting, if not profitable.

Bowling Green is located on the L. & N. Railroad, 117 miles from Louisville and 78 miles North of Nashville, Tenn. It is the county seat of Warren county, is located on the Barren river, less than 20 miles from its confluence with Green river and surrounded for many miles by a country generally level or undulating.

The population is said to have been 10,000 in 1900 with fully 1000 across the limits but really a part of the town. This estimate we would regard as conservative or correct, if appearances can be accepted. The postoffice is in the 2nd class, and city delivery requires the services of 4 carriers. There are 4 rural routes.

CITY OWNERSHIP.

The city owns the water works, Electric Arc Light plant for street lighting, the cemetery and two parks, a fine fire department, a street sweeping apparatus, a sewerage system and public school building.

The water works plant was established in 1869. At the pumping station are two engines, of two and one million gallon daily capacity, with a reservoir (2 blocks from the court park) holding a million gallons. There are at present 1813 service connections and 130 fire plugs. There are 30 miles of mains for the supply of water which is taken from the river. There are no large towns above to contaminate the water. We saw water running into the reservoir and it was clear. If there had been a tide in the river we presume the color would have been yellow, for we heard that the plant had no filters. The receipts for water last year were $17,682.10. On Dec. 31, 1902, there was in the city treasury to the credit of the water fund a balance of $8,040.88.

Our readers may be interested in knowing something about the cost of water for residences, etc. For a residence of 8 rooms $5.00 per year, of four rooms $7.00, of 5 rooms $9.00, of 6 rooms $10.00, of 7 rooms $12.00, for each additional room over $1.00 per year. Bath tub hot and cold $5.00; bath tub cold $3.00; water closet $2.00; kitchen sink $3.00 and basin $2.00. The cost for sprinkling lawns is 1c per square yard for the season, which extends from April 1 to November 1, but such sprinkling must be done from 5 p. m. to 9 p. m.

The minimum price for water in large quantities is 10c per 1000 gallons.

The water company carries the pipe to the pavement and puts in a cut-off or box feed, but the connection is the work of plumbers and is paid for by the consumer.

There is only one public drinking fountain for live stock. The street sprinkling appeared to be well done. We saw the street sweeper at work drawn by two horses. We heard of, but did not see, the city's machine for rolling the street, but such work has been well done in most places, or where needed.

We are disposed to think that a pleasure drive in Bowling Green would not result so seriously to one's false teeth, vertebrae, and general disposition as it would in some other towns within 1000 miles of Mt. Sterling. We are not saying that the streets of Bowling Green are perfection, or that a pedestrian on the pavements can walk safely with his eyes closed. All churches are supplied with water free of cost.

ARC LIGHTS.

The city installed this plant in 1888. At present there are 192 arc lights in use. The cost of each light per year has varied from the minimum $42 to the maximum $61, the cost varying according to expense in keeping up the plant. The deficit of this fund for the year was $3,545.80.

CEMETERY.

We sometimes go to cemeteries for serious meditation, sometimes for sight-seeing, but we did not visit the cemetery here. The record of the year shows a deficit of $1.19.

PARKS.

In the center of the business section is an elliptical park. It has a central fountain probably 22 feet high, with statuary, storks, etc.; two large vases of plants and foliage, and four pieces of statuary, seats and trees including a "giant of the forest." Business houses surround this park. The distances between the fronts of these houses is according to our stepping (estimated at 3 feet) 315 ft. by 650 ft.

Two squares from this park is what is known as the Reservoir park. This has about 10 acres. On the summit is the reservoir of the water works. This reservoir holds one million gallons. Most of the surface of park is steep or rolling. We cited from the level of the stone on which is the iron fence surrounding the water. The elevation is higher than the tallest church spire in city (unless we had an optical delusion.) We saw but one higher spot in the city and that was the Potter Female College. In this park are many shade trees; walks and lovers' retreats. We were alone, hence did not fully appreciate the retreats. From this eminence is as fine a view as the writer has seen in Kentucky—extending many miles in every direction, unless, immediately behind Potter College. In the vicinity of Sharpsburg and Bethel are some fine views, but not revealing so much of the lowlands. Reader, if ever you go to Bowling Green, visit this reservoir.

In fact a bridal trip to Bowling Green, would be more pleasant and inspiring than many to large cities.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

We were informed that the city schools were well conducted. We noticed only one building as we passed, but had no interview with any one. This one appeared to be up-to-date, very large, with ample playground.

SEWER SYSTEM.

Concerning this we made no investigation, only know that the city has it.

Aside from what we saw, we are indebted to Mr. G. S. Hollingsworth, city clerk, for information concerning public utilities. He was very courteous, accommodating and pleasing and again to him we make our polite bow.

The city has printed a 12 page Financial Report of the city of Bowling Green for 1902. We have such a copy and from it have gotten some items. If any one wishes to examine it, call on us. We did not ask how many were printed, but suppose the tax-payers have a chance to know the Facts about city finances.

The city's bonded indebtedness on January 1, 1903, was $140,325. To offset this are the above holdings.

While here we met L. D. Greene, son of Lucien Greene, and L. A. Wise, jeweler, and Dr. L. R. Spratt, of Camargo. We left Bowling Green on Thursday morning and attended the U. W. B. M. Convention at Winchester on Friday.

We have given some items concerning the city's possession. In another article we will tell about matters and things in general.

A Trip to Morehead.

Our Mr. Trimble went to Morehead on Monday afternoon and returned on Tuesday morning. He learned the following facts while there and returning:

The Institute of the county this year will be conducted by the County Superintendent, Miss Cora Wilson, and the teachers. The usual expense $50 will thus be saved, and will be invested in books for the Teachers' Library.

By the kindness of Youth's Companion, four beautiful historic pictures will be given to each district in which is any decided improvement or adornment of the house and grounds; and to each of the three districts making most improvement will be given a U. S. flag.

Five thousand song books to be used in devotional exercises will be distributed in the schools, free of cost. The cost of the books is paid for by advertising.

An educational monthly journal for teachers and trustees will be distributed this year. The June number will be the first.

The Mountaineer printer has changed hands. This week's issue will be under the new management, R. B. Neal, of Grayson, and A. B. Wade, of Ashland, Ohio.

Sheriff R. H. Flannery, of Elliott, on yesterday took to Frankfort for two years Calbert Branham, convicted for aiding prisoners to escape. The prisoner had only four days to complete his term, for carrying a pistol. Now he gets two years.

Circuit Court convened on Monday. The trial of Harvey Moore, indicted for murdering Finn Tolliver, comes up on Tuesday. He has been in jail at Mt. Sterling.

Prof. F. C. Burton was elected last week to fill a vacancy in the town council.

A. T. Wood, W. C. Hamilton, E. W. Senff, of Mt. Sterling, are attending court.

Jonathan Osborne has been in charge of Osborne Hotel for a month.

Dock Holbrook, of Newfoundland, Elliott county, was enroute to Frankfort to accept a guardianship at the penitentiary.

French Stamper, a native of Rowan county, was last week convicted in the Federal Court at Catlettsburg for moonshining and sentenced to the U. S. prison at Atlanta, Ga., for 16 months. He broke jail at West Liberty 5 years ago and liberated other prisoners.

Anderson Sparkman, of Rowan, tried at same court for illegal sale of whiskey, got 1 year and 1 day.

Walter E. Scholze for counterfeiting in Covington, got 5 years. He came from New Orleans and had been in Covington only a week when he was arrested.

M. D. Perkins of Lawrence county, got 3 years for fraud in pension matters. He is a lawyer and has been practicing for 20 years, and for 18 years was a Magistrate in his county. He secured a pension amounting to about $800 for an aged woman, forged her signature, secured the money, represented to her that $500 of this had been "held up," paid her the balance and pocketed the $500.

These four prisoners were in charge of G. W. Castle, of Grayson, U. S. Marshal, and an assistant, and were enroute to Atlanta.

On same train were Dr. G. V. Daniel and Sheriff Ashley Ward, both of Johnson county, enroute to the asylum at Lexington with Robert J. Preston and John Walters, two young men of that county.

A corps of surveyors for the Northern Coke & Coal Co. were enroute to Jackson, Ky., to survey a large tract of mineral land in Eastern Kentucky.

Ashville and return, one fare for the round trip plus 25c. June 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31. Ask ticket agent for particulars.

Efforts Appreciated.

Everybody knows it is almost impossible to get shoes, these days, made from leather tanned after the old fashioned way. Yet there are some good shoes. We hunted the world over—we found every day shoes and Sunday shoes, in all styles for men and boys, plain calf, box calf, velour calf, kids, patent kids, patent calfs, patent calf, high top, regular top, low cuts, that are still being made out of honest material. We thought it best to handle such goods at a small margin of profit rather than those with larger profit and less quality. We are happy to know our efforts have been appreciated. Our shoe department has more than doubled. We thank you, and shall still keep the efforts on foot. Guthrie Clothing Co.'s is the place for the best and latest in footwear for man or boy.

Champion.

At the shoot for the Championship of the Blue Grass Gun Tournament at this place Thursday and Friday the Mt. Sterling Gun Club offered a $50 sterling silver Loving Cup to the highest at 50 birds. There were 27 entries some of whom were ex champions. J. H. Kemper and A. S. Johnson tied on 47 breaks and shot off 10 Johnson dropping one. This was a high score and sharp contest. The shoot for the Championship of 1904 will be with the club at Maysville.

Among those notable gunners registering out of the county were: John Dea, Maysville; Messrs. Osborn, McMeekin, Bates and Allen, Georgetown; Woolford Henderson, Lexington; C. O. LeeCompt, Eminence; S. S. Pinney, Rothwell; C. B. Rose, McCausey; Tom and George Clay, J. Q. Ward, Catesby Spears, Alyett Buckner, — Ship, Porter Smith (Old Hoss) Jim Crawford, Paris; E. and A. Dooley, John Rogers, Wades Mill; Bob Catlett, Owingsville; — Pragoff, Louisville.

Public School Commencement.

The Commencement will take place on Friday night, June 5th, at 8 p. m. in the Court House.

B. A. Jenkins, President of Ky. University, will deliver an address.

Saxton's full orchestra will render choice selections of music.

This will be a great event in the history of the school.

Store Burned.

The general store of the Eastern Kentucky Coal Company at Willard mines, was burned Thursday night with contents. Loss $5,000, with insurance of $1,200.

Fourth July rates one and third fare round trip via Queen & Crescent route. Tickets on sale July 2, 3, 4, good returning until July 8. Ask ticket agent for particulars.

Fit and Style!

There are some things which can't be improved. One of these things is the "QUEEN QUALITY" Shoe for women. You can make it more elaborate, you can decorate it, embellish it, use costly materials and still that. But for $100 a pair.

You Cannot Make a Better Shoe

Then "QUEEN QUALITY," having relied solely to the two great essentials of FIT and STYLE. This means that mechanically it is perfect. As for its appearance, the fact that one hundred women choose it instantly shows how all other shoes would seem to indicate that it is attractive. Why don't you go as far as to try on a pair the next time you go to the store? It costs nothing to see them fit your foot.

For Eight Years Director of Music at Hamilton College, Lexington,

Will teach a limited number of pupils during the coming winter

In MT. STERLING.

MISS SMITH

is a graduate of the New England Conservatory, Boston, where she studied with Dr. Louis Mass and Otto Bendix. More recently she was a pupil of Dr. Wm. Mason, of New York.

MISS SMITH uses both the Mason and the Leschetitzky methods, having studied the latter with a pupil of the great master.

Any wishing to correspond with her regarding the matter may do so through Mrs. J. E. Grubbs, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Wanted.

Men and women. Permanent employment. Experience unnecessary. Salary $50 per month. Call at Baunton hotel June 6 and 8th.

J. S. MIZNER, Gen. Agent.

Mr. J. W. Thompson has accepted a position with Harry Linthecum, the corner grocer. Mr. Thompson was in business on the corner for several years, and by his honest treatment and politeness won the respect of all, and will make Mr. Linthecum a valuable man.

Poisoned.

At Harrodsburg on Thursday night the Ladies of the Macdougalls gave a strawberry and cream supper. Twelve persons were poisoned but none died.

Beauty and Modernize.

MR. EDITOR: Please let me suggest to the citizens of Mt. Sterling the effect of a little effort to beautify and modernize our city. In walking up Clay street with a gentleman from Louisville, he at once noticed the removal of the fences in front of the homes of Mrs. Bright, M. C. Clay, Howard Howell, Herbert Tabb and Rev. Clarke, and the use of paint on these homes. It impressed him. It does others. Why not every citizen paint, white wash and remove front fences? The expense of fence and keeping it up, will furnish water to keep a beautiful front lawn. We will not only be paid in satisfaction, but will attract others to our city.

Signed: A. MR. STERLING.

RELIGIOUS.

The Baptist General Association will meet at Winchester June 17.

The first Sunday in June will be children's day in Christian churches and Sunday-schools.

The Montgomery Co. Sunday School convention meets at Camar, June 22. Every school is urged to send delegates.

At the Baptist Church, the pastor W. J. Bolla, will preach next Sunday morning and evening. Subject for the morning sermon, "Giving our Best to God." For the evening the subject is, "The Truth Seeker." Evening service begins 7:45. A cordial welcome for every body.

Rev. W. M. Forrest returned from Ohio on Friday and preached at the Christian church to a large audience on Sunday evening. His subject was the attitude of the intellectual leaders of India toward Christianity. The speaker is thoughtful, earnest and held the attention of his audience. He left yesterday for the West. His first stop will be at Butte, Montana, thence to Washington, Oregon and California.

The Eighth District C. W. B. M. Convention was held at Winchester on Friday in three sessions. There were 72 visitors or delegates. North Middletown sent the largest delegation. The reports showed a fine work for the year. Prof. McDaniel spoke in behalf of the school at Morehead and Prof. Chord for Hazel Green academy. An interesting program was given. In the afternoon a presiders' conference led by Rev. C. W. Dick, of North Middletown, considered: "Women's Work in the Church." The speakers were Revs. Armstrong, Clark, Neal, Derthick and Trimble. Few other men were at day sessions. The attendance of ladies was large.

Mrs. A. G. Wornall, of Paris, succeeds Mrs. Chas. Meng as Disc't. Manager. Mrs. Amelia Young was continued as Secretary for this county. Regret was expressed that Mrs. Meng could not continue as Manager. Mrs. A. M. Harrison,

State President, was present and delivered a fine address. She is an efficient and fluent leader. Members of the C. W. B. M. who were absent missed a full day's treat.

Change of Venue to Morgan. The June term of Breathitt Circuit Court convened Monday. The case of Curtis Jett and Tom White on the charge of assassinating J. B. Moreum, was called and passed until Tuesday, as was the case of Curtis Jett charged with the assassination of James Cockrell.

Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd in asking that the cases be passed until Tuesday, stated that he would prepare a motion asking for a change of venue. Judge Redwine is reported as saying that if such a motion was made he would be compelled to name some other judicial district in which the cases could be tried.

In his instructions to the grand jury, Judge Redwine said in part: "Breathitt county is full of crime. There has been but one hanging in the history of Breathitt county out of the many trials for murder. There are some cases in this court that I will not risk a Breathitt county jury to try. There is enough circumstantial evidence in this county to hold court the year around, and then not convict all amendable to law."

LATER—A change of venue has been granted to Morgan county. On Saturday two more companies of troops, from Danville and Shelbyville, aggregating 45, went to Jackson, making a total of about 170 troops now there.

Efforts Appreciated. Everybody knows it is almost impossible to get shoes, these days, made from leather tanned after the old fashioned way. Yet there are some good shoes. We hunted the world over—we found every day shoes and Sunday shoes, in all styles for men and boys, plain calf, box calf, velour calf, kids, patent kids, patent colts, patent calf, high top, regular top, low cuts, that are still being made out of honest material. We thought it best to handle such goods at a small margin of profit rather than those with larger profit and less quality. We are happy to know our efforts have been appreciated. Our shoe department has more than doubled. We thank you, and shall still keep the efforts on foot. Guthrie Clothing Co.'s is the place for the best and latest in footwear for man or boy.

Floods. Floods have prevailed in Kansas and Missouri for a few days. Loss of life at Topeka, Kan., and Kansas City, Mo., will reach 50. Many thousands are homeless and millions of property destroyed.

Miss Jennie Breen's pupils will give a recital of piano, mandolin, guitar and vocal music at Court House, June 4th, 1903, at 8 p. m. Admission 10 cents.

On June 1, 1903, in this city, to the wife of Dr. C. M. Taylor, of Little Rock, Ark., a son.

Full dress ties, white vests, black socks. Guthrie Clo. Co.

State President, was present and delivered a fine address. She is an efficient and fluent leader. Members of the C. W. B. M. who were absent missed a full day's treat.

DEATHS.

Kidd—Billy Kidd, colored, for 20 years a faithful and trusted servant of Allen Prewitt, died on Sunday morning after a long illness.

Hall—Levi Hall, aged 87 years, died at his home in Menefee county on Thursday of last week. He was one of Menefee's oldest and most highly respected citizens.

KENNEY—In Lexington, on Saturday, in his 63 year, Nathan Kenney. His remains were brought here Sunday and taken to the Johnson burying grounds. Mr. Kenney was a good citizen, and leaves a wife and nine living children.

Bosworth—On Monday, June 1st, 1903, F. L. Bosworth departed this life at his home in Philadelphia, of heart trouble, aged 67 years. His remains will be brought to Kentucky for burial. He was a brother-in-law of Dr. R. Q. Drake, of this city, and brother of Dr. Bosworth, of Lexington, and the father of Dr. Ben Bosworth, Knoxville, Tenn., and Mrs. W. A. Wilson and Mrs. Jessie Ross, of Philadelphia. Mr. Bosworth came to Mt. Sterling in 1859 and was a resident until 1899 when he moved to Knoxville, Tenn., and from there went to Philadelphia. Last February he buried his wife. He was a member of the Mt. Sterling Baptist Church since 1871, and had been a member of that hospital of devoted christian body from janitor, Superintendent of Sunday-school to deacons. He wanted no higher preferment. He was a model man, a sweet christian character. When last here the Baptist pastor applied personal questions to the attendants at the mid week prayer meeting and one answered the question "why are you here?" I thought I would see Brother Bosworth here. Poor in the world, a young man said to one of his customers, "you owe more for coal now than you can pay," and the good man hearing the refusal said: "Let him have another load: it is cold, and if we do not get pay here, we will over ponder." This is the character of the man. Major Wood said of him, "truly he is a correct man. I was a lawyer in a case where he was an interested witness and the case turned on his evidence, and he preferred to be truthful and lose rather than false and win." I knew him in the joys of religion, in the despondency that earth's cares often bring. In the former he praised the Lord, and in the latter he unlocked the Baptist Church door, locked it behind him, and wrestled in prayer to God until the relief came. To God's call he has answered, and by his death a life well worthy of imitation has gone out. May he be remembered for his correct living for his real worth.

Change of Venue to Morgan. The June term of Breathitt Circuit Court convened Monday. The case of Curtis Jett and Tom White on the charge of assassinating J. B. Moreum, was called and passed until Tuesday, as was the case of Curtis Jett charged with the assassination of James Cockrell.

Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd in asking that the cases be passed until Tuesday, stated that he would prepare a motion asking for a change of venue. Judge Redwine is reported as saying that if such a motion was made he would be compelled to name some other judicial district in which the cases could be tried.

In his instructions to the grand jury, Judge Redwine said in part: "

A detailed black and white line drawing of the Kentucky Building at the World's Fair. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a prominent central section featuring a portico supported by columns. The roof is adorned with several tall flagpoles, each flying a flag. The building's facade is highly decorative with intricate carvings and patterns. In the foreground, there are stylized trees and a few small figures of people, suggesting a public square or fairground setting. The text 'KENTUCKY BUILDING' is written in a bold, sans-serif font in the upper left corner, and 'WORLD'S FAIR' is written in a similar font in the upper right corner.
